Dear Mr. Davenport,

I am writing to express my concern for the recent developments in the region. The rise of nationalist sentiments and the increasing interference from neighboring countries have led to a tense situation.

I urge you to consider the long-term implications of these actions and to seek peaceful solutions. It is crucial that we maintain stability and work towards reconciliation.

Yours sincerely,

Monday of January, April, July and Oct. Held all which received 50 collected by the said Sheriff must be laid in by him to the County Treasurer. Provided, the Sheriff may retain out of the license tax so collected for his own use ten (10) per cent. out of all such collections.

Sec 16. The County Auditor must prepare and have printed blank licenses of all classes mentioned in this ordinance with a blank receipt attached for the signatures of the Sheriff when sold. The Auditor must affix his official seal to number and sign all licenses and from time to time deliver them to the Sheriff in such quantity as may be required taking his receipt thereof, and charge them therewith giving in the entries the numbers, classes and amount thereof.

Sec 17. The Auditor must keep in his office the returns of all licenses by him delivered to the Sheriff and all books in which he must keep the Sheriff's account for all license delivered and his, sold or returned unsold by him. A true statement of the Sheriff's license account must be certified to the County Treasurer.
large, in the town of [illegible].

I suppose you will not be able to write to me this winter, as we are both occupied with the preparations for starting the [illegible] in Boston. However, I hope to hear from you soon.

I am very much obliged for the information you have given me regarding the health of the family and the condition of the crops. I trust everything will go on as well as possible in your absence.

Greetings from [illegible].

Yours sincerely,
