Ordinance No. 37.

An ordinance Requesting the health of Domestic Animals and the Sanitary Condition of Dairies, Slaughter Houses, Markets and other places from which Food Supply is Distributed.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep within the County of Solano any domestic animal known to be afflicted with glanders, foot, anthrax, splenic or Texas fever, or any contagious or infectious disease.

Section 2. Every person owning or who shall have in his possession any domestic animal affected, or whom he has reason to believe is affected, with any of the diseases mentioned in Section 1, of this Ordinance, shall at once report the same to the Health Officer of said Solano County, who shall as soon as possible proceed to make the necessary examination in test of said animal, according to the rules laid down by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person who shall have in his possession any domestic animal afflicted with any contagious or infectious disease, knowing such animal to be so afflicted, or having received notice from said Health Officer of the County of Solano that such animal is so affected, to permit such animal to run... at large, or to keep such animal where other domestic animals not affected by its contagion or infection shall be exposed thereto.

Section 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale, or to give, away within the said County of Solano, any milk drawn from any cow known to be affected with tuberculosis, anthrax, or any other contagious or infectious disease.

Section 5. It shall be unlawful for any person to sell or offer for sale, or to give away within the said County of Solano, any meat, poultry, fish, or game which is either wholly or partly putrid, decomposed, or diseased.

Section 6. All dairies or other places within the said County of Solano, where cows are kept for the purpose of supplying milk or butter to be sold, shall be kept in a clean and proper sanitary condition, and all cans or other vessels used in and about said dairies or other places where cows are kept for the purpose of supplying milk or butter to be sold shall be thoroughly sterilized with boiling water at least once a day.

Section 7. All slaughtering houses, markets, and other places, within the County of Solano, from which meat, poultry, fish, or game are supplied for human food shall be kept in a clean and proper sanitary condition.
Section 8: All animals kept for dairy purposes or which are intended to be slaughtered for human food shall at all times be supplied with good wholesome water.

Section 9: It shall be unlawful for any cattle to be driven on or through the said County of Dolan, or unloaded at any rail road depot, boat landing or wharf in said County, without first having been inspected by the said Health officer or by the same officer of the adjoining County.

Section 10. It shall be the duty of the said Health officer to quarantine all cattle affected with fever ticks until such time as the owner or agent shall take such measures prescribed by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry to rid the said animals of the ticks.

Section 11. It shall be the duty of the said Health officer to see that cattle when unloaded from trains or boats are properly disinfected as prescribed by the United States Bureau of Animal Industry.

Section 12. Any violation of this Ordinance shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, may be punished by a fine not exceeding Five Hundred Dollars, a day's imprisonment in the County Jail not exceeding 50 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 13: All Ordinances and parts of Ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.
Section 14: This ordinance shall take effect on, and from its lawful publication.

Adopted December 5th, 1878, by the following vote of the Board: Ayes, Bergwall, Buckingham, Fleming, Sullivan, and Deollio (Chairman); Nows, none.

Approved, December 5th 1878.

B. J. Deollio, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of Alameda County.
