Ordinance No. 42,

An ordinance regulating the shipment of cattle into the county of Solano.

The Board of Supervisors of the county of Solano, State of California, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. It is hereby ordered that on and after this date, no cattle originating in that certain area of territory, south, east, and below the quarantine line as established by the State of California, August 19th, 1899, or such line as may be hereafter established from time to time, shall be transported by rail, shipped, drivel, or otherwise moved into the county of Solano, State of California, except in accordance with the regulations concerning transportation as may be issued by the U.S. Department of Agriculture, or the proper officer of the State of California.

Section 2. Every person violating the above ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 3. Every person found guilty of violation of the provisions shall be punished by a fine in the sum of not less than twenty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail of the county of Solano, not less than ten days nor more than six months; or to be punished by both such fine and imprisonment.
Section 4. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force fifteen days after its passage, upon due publication.

Adopted March 5th, 1900 by the following vote:— Ayes: Bergwall, Herron, Selleman, and Buckingham. Nays, none. About, Fleming.
