ORDINANCE NO. 46.

AN ORDINANCE PROVIDING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE USE OF SIDEPATHS.

RESTRICTING THE USE THEREOF TO CERTAIN VEHICLES AND PEDESTRIANS, PROHIBITING CERTAIN ACTS IN RELATION THERETO AND PROVIDING FOR THE PUNISHMENT OF VIOLATIONS THEREOF.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. The use of all the side paths which have been heretofore or may hereafter be set apart, located or marked by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, in the manner provided by Subdivision 12 of Section 20183 of the Political Code of the State of California, shall be restricted to pedestrians and riders of bicycles and other vehicles propelled solely by the power of the rider, and the rules and regulations herein provided shall apply to and govern all such side paths.

Section 2. It shall be unlawful for any person, other than a pedestrian or rider of a vehicle propelled solely by the power of the rider, to use any of the side paths for any purpose, or for any person to drive or ride thereon, or to hitch or tie thereon, or on or upon or across said side paths, or any of them, or any part thereof, or to any fence or post along the side of said side paths, any horse or other animal, providing that this section shall not apply to any person who shall ride or drive any animal across any such side paths, at any point where any public or private road crosses such side paths.

Section 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to place or cause to be placed upon any part of said paths any glass, tacks, stone, debris or any obstructions or thing injurious to a bicycle or pedestrian; or to build fires or camp thereon, or upon any part thereof, or in any wise to obstruct said paths, or any part thereof.

Section 4. It shall be unlawful for any person to mar by cutting, shooting or in any manner defacing the bridges, posts, signboards or other wood work connected with the said side paths.

Section 5. It shall be unlawful for the rider or any vehicle propelled solely by the power of the rider to use any of the said side paths from the period embraced between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise on any day without exposing upon such vehicle a head light of at least one candle power, projecting rays of light in the direction in which said vehicle is moving.
Section 6. It shall be unlawful for the rider of any vehicle, propelled solely by the power of the rider, to remove his or her feet from the pedals of the machine while riding on any of the said side paths.

Section 7. It shall be unlawful for the rider of any vehicle, propelled solely by the power of the rider, to ride on any of the said side paths without at least one hand on the handle bars or guiding lever of the machine.

Section 8. It shall be unlawful for the rider of any such vehicle, propelled solely by the power of the rider, to ride thereon without sounding a bell, horn or other instrument capable of making an audible sound that can be heard at a distance of one hundred and fifty feet, upon approaching any gate, lane, highway or other crossing, or upon approaching and upon passing another such vehicle or a pedestrian.

Section 9. It shall be unlawful for person riding vehicle, propelled solely by the power of the rider, to travel upon said side paths abreast, or at a speed exceeding twelve miles an hour when going free, or to exceed six miles an hour when passing another such vehicle or a pedestrian.

Section 10. It shall be unlawful for any person using such side paths not to keep to the left of the person passed when overtaking and passing any other person thereon, and not to keep to the right of the person passed when meeting another person thereon.

Section 11. Pedestrians shall, under ordinary circumstances, give way to riders of vehicles propelled solely by the power of the rider.

Section 12. It shall be unlawful for any person to run or permit or cause to be on or across the said side paths, any water.

Section 13. It shall be unlawful for the owner of any property along the road line of which any of the said side paths may be built, to so construct gates or other means of entrance or exit from such property, that the opening of said gates or means of entrance or exit shall in any manner obstruct the said side paths.

Section 14. Any person violating any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five dollars nor more than three hundred, or by imprisonment in the County Jail of Solano County until said fine is paid, not exceeding one day for each dollar of such fine in case such fine is not paid, or by imprisonment in the County jail of Solano County not exceeding three hundred days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 15. This Ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after fifteen days after its passage.
