ORDINANCE NO. 104.

The Board of Supervisors of Solano county do ordain as follows:—

Sec. 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, corporation or association to move cattle, hogs or sheep into Solano County unless they are accompanied by a certificate of health issued by an official or licensed graduate veterinarian based upon actual inspection of the animals at point of origin within one week of the time movement was begun, and an affidavit signed by the owner certifying that such animals have been confined to the premises where the inspection was made for at least thirty days, just prior to movement.

Sec. 2. All persons, dogs, camping equipment and effects accompanying movements of livestock must be accompanied by affidavit that such persons, equipment and effects have not been within any areas under quarantine for foot and mouth disease within thirty days from time such movement was begun.

Sec. 3. It shall be unlawful for any person to employ strangers on ranches where livestock is kept, unless such person (prospective employee) shall present a certificate from the county livestock inspector certifying, after investigation, that he has not been in a close quarantine area within thirty days or has been properly disinfected.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of all persons immediately to report any symptoms of the foot and mouth disease which may be observed or rumors of such symptoms which may come to their attention to the county livestock inspector or the state or federal department of Agriculture.

Sec. 5. Any person, firm, association or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $300.00 or be imprisoned not to exceed six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Sec. 6. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon the passage hereof because of the adoption and enforcement hereof is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety by reason of the fact that the public peace, health and safety is endangered by the threatened epidemic of the "foot and mouth disease" this ordinance prior to the expiration of fifteen days from passage hereof, shall be published for at least one week in (name of paper) a newspaper published in the County of Solano, State of California, together with the names of the members of the Board of Supervisors voting for and against the same.
The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, on the 7th day of April, A. D. 1924, by the following vote:

Ayes—Mayfield, McCormack, Schmeiser, Thornton and Fleming.

D. H. Fleming,
Chairman

D. H. Hallman, Supt.