ORDINANCE No. 106.

AN ORDINANCE TO REGULATE AND SHORTEN THE SEASON FOR TAKING AND FISHING TROUT WITHIN THE COUNTY OF SOLANO, AND PROVIDING FOR PENALTIES FOR THE VIOLATION THEREOF.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, do ordain as follows:

SECTION I. It shall be unlawful for any person between the 30th day of April, 1924, and the 30th day of June, 1924, both dates inclusive, to take, catch, kill or have in his possession any variety of trout within the County of Solano.

SECTION II. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, or more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the County Jail not less than ten or more than one hundred fifty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

All fines and forfeitures imposed and collected for any violation of any of the provisions of this section shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the fish and games preservation fund.

SECTION III. It shall be the duty of all police officers of the County of Solano to enforce this ordinance.

SECTION IV. This ordinance is passed and adopted by reason of the existence in other counties of this state of the dangerous and extremely contagious disease, known as Foot and Mouth disease, and for the purpose of protecting the people and livestock of Solano county from said disease, and this ordinance is hereby declared to be an ordinance for the immediate preservation of the public health and safety and is to take effect and be in force immediately.

SECTION V. That all ordinances or parts thereof heretofore passed in conflict of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, on the 21st day of April, A.D. 1924, by the following vote:

Names of Supervisors voting for said ordinance,—Mayfield, McCormack, Schmeiser, Thornton and Fleming.
