ORDINANCE NO. 128.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, do ordain as follows:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, whether as principal, clerk, servant, agent, or employee, to manufacture, buy, sell, deal in, or furnish to him, its or their patrons, or to have in possession for any purpose whatsoever other than for consumption in his own family, or for transportation in case of a boat or railroad company, any oleomargarine or other substitute for butter without first having procured a license so to do as in this ordinance provided.

Section 2. For the purposes of this ordinance, a substitute for butter is defined as any article, product or compound made wholly or partly out of any fat, oil, or oleaginous substance or compound thereof, not produced directly and wholly (except for the addition of small quantities of salt and coloring matter) and at the time of manufacture from unadulterated milk or cream from the same, which article, product or compound shall be colored in imitation of butter produced from unadulterated milk or cream, or be made to resemble butter in color, by whatever means the coloring is accomplished, or shall be calculated or intended to be sold as or for butter or as a substitute for butter.

Section 3. License taxes shall be due and payable quarterly in advance and no license granted or issued under this ordinance shall be in any manner assignable or transferable, nor shall it authorize any person, firm, or corporation, other than the one mentioned or named in the license to do business or authorize any other business than that therein named or mentioned, without permission of the tax collector endorsed on said license.

Section 4. Every person, firm or corporation having a license herein provided for shall keep said license continually and conspicuously on display in that part of his place of business frequented by those dealing with him. Every person, firm or corporation having a license herein provided for shall also keep the state license to deal in substitutes for butter or cheese continually and conspicuously on display in that part of his place of business frequented by those dealing with him. The posting or possession of said state license shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this ordinance unless the possessor thereof shall have procured a license as in this ordinance provided.

Section 5. Every person, firm or corporation engaged in the sale or handling of substitutes for butter within the county of Solano, State of California, shall pay a license fee of Fifty Dollars and 00/100 ($50.00) dollars per quarter.

Section 6. Each separate act in violation of any provision of this ordinance shall constitute a separate offense and every person, firm or corporation violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor.

Section 7. This ordinance is hereby declared to be enacted in the exercise of the police power of the County of Solano, State of California, and for the purpose of preventing fraud in the sale of substitutes for butter, and the Board of Supervisors hereby declares that it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, subdivision, sentence, clause, and phrase, thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, subdivisions, sentences, clauses or phrases is declared unconstitutional or otherwise invalid for any reason.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, at a regular session of said Board on the 7th day of March, 1932, by the following vote: Ayes: Supervisors Birchmore, Christensen, Daniels, Cleveland and Schmeiser. Nays: None. Absent: None.

ATTEST:

C. E. Schmeiser,
Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California.

C. G. Halliday
County Clerk and Ex-Officio Clerk of said Board of Supervisors.
