ORDINANCE NO. 132

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING COMPENSATION OF COUNTY OFFICERS AND NUMBER AND SALARIES OF DEPUTIES, CLERKS, STENOGRAPHERS AND OTHER EMPLOYEES.

THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF SOLANO DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION 1. In the County of Solano the county officers shall receive as compensation for their services required of them by law or by virtue of their offices the following salaries, fees and expenses, to wit:-

SECTION 2. The County Clerk, three thousand three hundred and sixty dollars per annum, and such fees as are allowed by law for issuing hunting and fishing licenses, and for the naturalization of persons desiring to become citizens; also five hundred dollars additional per year for the registration of voters. He shall also be allowed to appoint one chief deputy which office of chief deputy is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of two thousand two hundred and eighty dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid. He shall also be allowed to appoint one copyist, which office of copyist is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid. He shall also be allowed to appoint one registration deputy, who is hereby designated and shall be known as registration deputy, with full power to register electors as may be necessary for the convenient registration of voters in their respective precincts or townships, each of said registration deputies to receive the sum of ten cents per name for each elector registered by him. The compensation of such registration deputies for such registration of electors shall be paid out of the general fund of the county on a duly verified claim therefor approved by the County Clerk and allowed by the Board of Supervisors.

SECTION 3. The Sheriff, four thousand two hundred and sixty dollars per annum, and the fees or commissions for the service of all papers whatsoever issued by any court outside of the Superior Court in and for this County. He shall appoint a jailer to take charge of the branch county jail at a salary of one thousand five hundred dollars per annum, an undersheriff at a salary of two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, a deputy jailer at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, who shall act as a jailer for the county jail, and a deputy jailer at a salary of two thousand dollars per annum, and the salaries of which deputies shall be paid by the county in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salaries of other county officers are paid.

SECTION 4. The Recorder, two thousand four hundred dollars per annum. He shall also be allowed one deputy, which office of deputy recorder is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of one thousand nine hundred and eighty dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officials are paid. He may also appoint such copyists as may be required for the recording of all papers, notices and documents in his office, who shall receive as compensation for their services the sum of five cents per folio for actual work done in copying and comparing any instrument to be recorded (except maps and plats) and for making copies of any records or papers. The compensation of the copyists herein provided shall be paid by the county in monthly installments at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the County Recorder is paid; provided, that the Recorder shall file monthly with the Auditor a verified statement showing in detail the persons employed as such copyists and the amount due to each for such copying and comparing. All fees collected by said Recorder for filing and recording of instruments and other documents, maps and plats, or for copies made for records shall be paid in the county treasury.

SECTION 5. In counties of this class the Auditor shall be allowed one deputy, which office of deputy auditor is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of two thousand two hundred and eighty dollars per annum, and one deputy, which office of deputy auditor is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of one thousand two hundred dollars per annum. In addition to said deputies the County Auditor shall have the right to employ from time to time in his office such additional assistants as may be required to promptly perform the work required to be done therein. Such assistants shall receive a salary not to exceed five dollars each for each day they are actually and necessarily employed and not to exceed the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in any one year. The deputies and assistants herein provided for shall be paid out of the same fund as the salary of the Auditor is paid.

SECTION 6. The Treasurer, two thousand seven hundred dollars per annum. He shall also be allowed one deputy which office of deputy treasurer is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of two thousand two hundred and eighty dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid.

SECTION 7. The Tax Collector, three thousand dollars per annum and his actual and necessary expenses when engaged in the collection of taxes in the various townships of the county; provided, however, such expenses shall not in any one year exceed the sum of one hundred dollars. He shall also be allowed one deputy, which office of deputy tax collector is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of two thousand and two hundred and eighty dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid. In addition to said deputy, the Tax Collector shall have the authority to employ from time to time in his office such additional assistants as may be required to promptly perform the work necessary therein. Said assistants shall receive a salary not to exceed five dollars per day and not to exceed the sum of seven hundred and fifty dollars in any one year. The deputy and assistants herein provided for shall be paid by said county at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salary of the Tax Collector is paid.

SECTION 8. The Assessor, three thousand seven hundred and sixty dollars per annum, and his actual and necessary traveling expenses, when engaged in assessing the properties of his county; provided, such traveling expenses shall not in any one year exceed the sum of two hundred dollars. He shall also be allowed one deputy which office of deputy is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation two thousand two hundred and eighty dollars per annum, and one deputy, which office of deputy is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation one thousand five hundred dollars per annum. The salaries of which deputies shall be paid out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid. The Assessor shall also receive six per cent of all personal property taxes collected by him and all fees and commissions allowed him by law for collection of poll taxes and preparation of roll of persons subject to military duty.

SECTION 9. In counties of this class the District Attorney may appoint a deputy district attorney, which office of deputy district attorney is hereby created, and said deputy district attorney shall receive as compensation for all services performed, the sum of two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, to be paid out of the county treasury, in equal monthly installments, at the same time, in the same manner and out of the same fund that salaries of other county officials are paid. He shall be allowed two stenographers, which offices of stenographers are hereby created and who shall receive as compensation one thousand two hundred dollars each per annum, payable out of the same fund and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid.

SECTION 10. The Coroner, such fees as are now or may hereafter be allowed by law.

SECTION 11. The Public Administrator, eight hundred dollars per annum.

SECTION 12. The Superintendent of Schools, two thousand seven hundred dollars per annum and traveling expenses while visiting and examining schools and school properties of the county and in performing such other duties as are incidental to the full discharge of the requirements of the office of the Superintendent of Schools; provided, the Superintendent of Schools may appoint one deputy which office of deputy is hereby created, who shall receive as compensation the sum of one thousand nine hundred and eighty dollars per annum, payable at the same time and in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid.

SECTION 13. The Surveyor, two thousand four hundred dollars per annum and in addition thereto all necessary expenses, such as transportation and pay for help which may be necessary for the performance of county duties. He shall also be allowed to appoint one clerk, which office of clerk is hereby created and who shall receive as compensation the sum of one thousand dollars per annum. The Surveyor may employ such additional assistants as he may deem necessary, whose aggregate compensation shall not exceed four hundred dollars per annum.

SECTION 14. The County Librarian, two thousand one hundred dollars per annum, payable at the same time and in the same manner and out of the same fund as the salaries of other county officers, provided, that the Board of Supervisors may appoint all necessary employees for the county library as provided by law. The County Librarian shall also be allowed actual and necessary traveling expenses.

SECTION 15. Justices of the Peace, the following monthly salaries, to be paid each month as the salaries of the county officers are paid, which shall be in full for all services rendered by them: In townships having a population of six thousand or more, one hundred and fifty dollars per month; in townships having a population of one thousand five hundred and less than six thousand, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; in townships having a population of one thousand and less than one thousand five hundred, one hundred dollars; in townships six hundred fifty one less than one thousand, twenty (20) dollars. Each Justice must pay into the county treasury, once a month, all fines and fees collected by him in criminal and civil cases as provided by law.
SECTION 16. Constables, the following salaries which shall be paid monthly as salaries of the county officers are paid and which shall be in full for all services rendered by them in criminal cases, to-wit: In townships having a population of one thousand eight hundred and more, one hundred and twenty-five dollars; in townships having a population of one thousand five hundred and less than one thousand eight hundred, eighty dollars; in townships having a population of one thousand and less than one thousand five hundred, fifty dollars; in townships having a population of eight hundred and less than one thousand, thirty dollars, in townships having a population of six hundred fifty and less that eight hundred, fifteen dollars; in townships having a population of less than six hundred, ten dollars. In addition to the monthly salary allowed herein, each constable may receive and retain for his own use such fees as are now or may be hereafter allowed by law for all services performed by him in civil actions. For the purpose of this section, the bases of calculation for fixing the population of the different townships of the county shall always be based upon the figures as shown by the last United States census; provided, however, that whenever the census of any township or townships shall have been taken under the provisions of this title, said census may become the basis of calculation.

SECTION 17. Each member of the County Board of Education shall receive six cents per mile for traveling from his or her residence to the county seat; provided, that mileage be not allowed for more than two meetings in any one month.

SECTION 18. The salaries herein allowed are in full compensation for all duties performed by either principals or their deputies and all fees of every kind collected by each officer of his deputy except the Assessor and his deputies as provided in Section 8 of this Act shall be paid into the county treasury as provided by law except that the County Clerk, Sheriff, Assessor, Coroner and Constables shall each be allowed the fees and commissions provided for in Subdivisions 8, 3, 8, 10, and 16 respectively, of this Act.

SECTION 19. This Ordinance shall take effect on and after the first day of October, 1933, and the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors is hereby directed to cause this Ordinance to be published in the "River News", a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Solano, State of California, for one week.

The foregoing Ordinance was passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano at a regular session of said Board on the 25th day of August, 1933, by the following vote:

Ayes: Supervisors Christensen, Danielson and Schmeiser.

Nees: Supervisors Marchion and Sheveland.

G. B. Schmeiser.
Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California.