The CAO/Director of Emergency Services of Solano County shall invite the agencies/individuals above to serve as members of the Solano County Disaster Council, to attend its scheduled meetings and to serve, when requested, as members of the County's Emergency Operations Center (EOC), under the purview of the Incident Command System (ICS.)

Section 7-102.2. Incident Command Committee — Membership

The Incident Command Committee consists of the following Solano County Disaster Council Members, and serves for the purpose of effectively aggregating, under the aegis of the Incident Command System (ICS), county personnel and material assets in support of an effective emergency response before, during, and after a major emergency/disaster. The members of the Incident Command Committee have been previously denoted by an asterisk (*).
SECTION II.

Section 7-103 of the Solano County Code is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 7-103. Same — Powers and Duties.

It shall be the duty of the Solano County Disaster Council and it is hereby empowered to review, evaluate, and recommend for adoption and or consideration by the Board of Supervisors plans and estimates of hazards facing the County, as well as methods for the mitigation of such hazards. The Disaster Council shall also develop for adoption by the Board, emergency and mutual aid plans, emergency exercises, emergency mutual aid agreements, and such ordinances, resolutions, rules and regulations as may be necessary to implement the same.

The Incident Command Committee of the Solano County Disaster Council shall meet monthly, or at the call of the CAO/Director of Emergency Services.

The Disaster Council and its component committee, the Incident Command Committee, and all other such committees as may be designated by the Chairman of the Disaster Council are authorized to:

1. Develop and implement the regulations and training necessary to insure that the entire county staff and all county employees are able, when called upon during an emergency, to do their part in mitigation, response and recovery from the effects of a disaster, which may affect Solano County, its people, industry, or any of its component jurisdictions.

2. Develop, review, publish and when appropriate implement emergency plans of the county.

3. Make recommendations to the Board with respect to emergency situations or hazards, current or developing in the county.

4. Act as the focal point for the coordination of emergency exercises conducted with other governmental agencies, to include the cities and special districts of Solano County and all appropriate elements of private enterprise in the county.

The Disaster Council shall review emergency services programs and the emergency services plans, programs and emergency readiness status of all county departments. It shall render, under the signature of the CAO/Director of Emergency Services, an annual report to the Board of Supervisors, on the Emergency Services preparedness status of the county and its agencies.
It is the desire of the Board of Supervisors that directors of County Departments will personally participate, as requested, in the deliberations and activities of the Disaster Council, and that if they choose to have a representative attend the meetings of said council, that that person be empowered to commit (his) or (her) department to all necessary action in support of emergency preparedness activities.

SECTION III.

Prior to amending Chapter 7-102 and 7-103 of the Solano County Code, the Solano County Board of Supervisors shall hold at least one public meeting, at which oral or written presentations may be made, as part of a regularly-scheduled meeting. Notice of such hearing(s) shall be given stating the date, time, and place they shall be held, at least FIFTEEN (15) DAYS prior to the date fixed therefor. Notice shall be published in the Daily Republic, newspaper of general circulation in the county.

SECTION IV.

This Ordinance shall be published once before the expiration of FIFTEEN (15) DAYS after its final passage in the Daily Republic, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the County of Solano, State of California, and shall be in full force and effect THIRTY (30) DAYS after its passage.

I, LINDA L. TERRA, Clerk of the Board of Supervisors, County of Solano, State of California, do hereby certify that the foregoing Ordinance was introduced at a regular meeting held April 4th, 1989.
