The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. Ordinance No. 141-A entitled "Ordinance Amending Ordinance No. 132 Regulating the Compensation of County Officers, etc." is hereby repealed.

SECTION 2. Section 15 of Ordinance No. 132 entitled "An Ordinance Regulating Compensation of County Officers and Number and Salaries of Deputies, Clerks, Stenographers and Other Employees" is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 15. Justices of the peace, the following monthly salaries, to be paid each month as the salaries of the county officers are paid, shall be in full for all services rendered by them: in townships having a population of six thousand or more, two hundred dollars per month; in townships having a population of one thousand five hundred and less than six thousand, one hundred twenty-five dollars; in townships having a population of one thousand and less than one thousand five hundred, one hundred dollars; in townships having a population of less than six hundred fifty, ten dollars. Each justice must pay into the county treasury, once a month, all fines and fees collected by him in criminal and civil cases as provided by law.

SECTION 3. In townships having a population of six thousand or more, the justice of the peace is hereby entitled to and may appoint a justice's clerk which office of justice's clerk is hereby created. The justice's clerk so appointed shall properly keep the records of the justice's court of such township, and shall perform all of the duties prescribed by Section 103a of the Code of Civil Procedure, and such other duties as may be required by law. The clerk of said justice's court shall be paid an annual salary of nine hundred dollars per annum, payable out of the same fund in the same manner as the salaries of other county officers are paid.

This ordinance shall take effect on the 11th day of January 1937, and the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors is hereby directed to cause this ordinance to be published in the VENICE WEEKLY TIMES, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the County of Solano, State of California, for one week prior to the 15th day after its passage.

The foregoing ordinance was passed and adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano at a regular session of said Board on the 7th day of December 1936, by the following vote:
