ORDINANCE 633
ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE NUMBER 355, ENTITLED: "AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE POSITION OF COUNTY FIRE WARDEN, DEFINING HIS POWERS AND DUTIES THEREOF, AND ESTABLISHING CONTROLS, RULES AND REGULATIONS OF FIRE AND FIRE HAZARDS TOGETHER WITH PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS THEREOF.

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, Do Ordain as follows:--

SECTION I. Section 12 of Solano County Ordinance No. 355 is hereby amended to read as follows, to-wit: "Section 12. Whenever the County Fire Warden, or deputy, or other officer shall find in, or upon, any premises any explosives or dangerous electrical wiring or dangerous accumulation of inflammable material which shall, or might constitute a fire hazard, or shall find obstruction to fire escapes, stairways, passageways, basement entrances, doors, windows or fireplugs liable to interfere with the operation of any fire equipment or the ingress or egress of persons in cases of fire, such officers shall be written order require the same to be removed or corrected within a reasonable time, and the owner, occupant or person in charge of such premises, shall forthwith comply with such order or offer, unless a hearing is requested as hereinafter set forth. If there is no person present in the charge of such premises, a copy of said order shall be posted at or upon the premises in a conspicuous place, and a copy forthwith sent by registered or certified mail to the reputed owner or person in charge thereof, directed to the latest known address of such person. Any written order made pursuant to this section, or section 14 of this ordinance shall:"

Deputy County Clerk
Order 633 continued: October 18, 1966

(a) Describe the hazard or deficiency in sufficient detail to apprise the owner or occupant as to what he must do; (b) Specify the time within which the owner or occupant is required to comply; (c) State that, unless compliance is had within the time specified in the notice, the County Fire Warden or the applicable fire protection district may cause the property to be brought into compliance, with the cost of so doing to be assessed against the property, and the owner, occupant, or person in charge thereof may be subject to criminal prosecution; (d) State that the property, owner, occupant, or person in charge thereof may, within seven (7) days after the making of the order, request a hearing before the County Fire Warden as to whether or not an actual fire hazard or deficiency exists. If a property owner, occupant, or person in charge requests a hearing, the County Fire Warden shall fix a time and a place for the hearing and notify the property owner, occupant or person in charge. At the time and place of the hearing, the property owner, occupant or person in charge may appear and be heard upon the question of whether or not an actual fire hazard or deficiency exists upon the property which he owns, occupies or controls. If the County Fire Warden determines, at the conclusion of the hearing, that an actual fire hazard or deficiency exists upon the property, he shall order the property, owner, occupant or person in charge of the premises to forthwith abate the fire hazard or correct the deficiency.

SECTION 9. Section 15 of Solano County Ordinance No. 355 is hereby amended to read as follows, to wit: "Section 15. In the event the County Fire Warden or his deputies, or the Chief of the applicable fire protection district or his deputies, shall require the compliance by the owner, occupant or person in charge of any property with any of the provisions of this ordinance, and such owner, occupant, or person in charge fails to so comply, the County Fire Warden or the applicable fire protection district, may cause the same to be done and the reasonable cost thereof shall constitute a lien against such property when notice of lien is filed for record in the Office of the County Recorder, and shall constitute a legal charge against the owner thereof which may be collected by adding the cost to the tax bill of the owner for the ensuing fiscal year, or by action at law. None of the remedies herein enumerated for collection of the cost shall be exclusive of any other remedy or remedies available to the County."

SECTION 9. This ordinance shall be published once before the expiration of fifteen (150 days after its passage in the TIMES HERALD), a newspaper published in the County of Solano, and shall be in full force and effect on and after thirty (30) days after its passage.
