AN ORDINANCE PROHIBITING BOATING ON PUTAH CREEK AT CERTAIN TIMES

The Board of Supervisors of the County of Solano, State of California, does ordain as follows:

SECTION I. Boating on Putah Creek.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to operate any boat on the waters of Putah Creek westerly of County Road No. 293 at such time that

(1) The flow of water on Monticello Dam exceeds the rate of 750 cubic feet per second; and

(2) Control signs or devices prohibiting boating are posted at the Putah Creek Fishing Access Area.

(b) The Parks Director shall cause control signs or devices prohibiting boating to be posted at the Putah Creek Fishing Access Area at such times as the flow of water at Monticello Dam exceeds the rate set forth in paragraph (2) of this ordinance.

(c) A boat is defined to mean an undocumented vessel or device except an seaplane or water-ski, in or upon which persons or property may be transported upon, under or over the surface of water including, but not confined to any boat, raft, barge, canoe, skiff, dingy, rowboat, sailboat, sailing vessel, yacht, motorboat, motor vessel, float, pontoon, commercial boat, launch and ship.

SECTION II. Effective Date

This ordinance shall be published once before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage in the DAILY REPUBLIC, a newspaper of general circulation printed and published in Solano County, and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its passage.

WALLACE L. BRATZELTON,
Chairman of the Board of Supervisors

AN ORDINANCE REGULATING EMISSIONS OF AIR CONTAMINANTS FROM INCINERATION OF COMBUSTIBLES

SECTION 1. PURPOSES: In order to protect the health and safety of the residents of this county from the effects of air pollution, this ordinance is adopted by the Board of Supervisors pursuant to Article XI, Section 11, of the California Constitution to regulate the emissions of certain air contaminants from the incineration of combustibles.

SECTION 2. PROHIBITIONS: No person, firm, corporation, association or public agency shall ignite, cause to be ignited, permit to be ignited or suffer, allow, or maintain any open outdoor fire within the uninorporated areas of the County of Solano, except as provided in this ordinance.

SECTION 3. DEFINITIONS: For the purpose of this ordinance, the following words and phrases shall have the meaning respectively ascribed to them by this section:

(a) "Open outdoor fire" shall mean any combustion of combustible material of any type outdoors, in the open, not in any enclosure, where the products of combustion are not directed through a flue.

(b) "Flue" shall mean any duct, or passage for air, gas or the like, such as a stack or chimney.

(c) "Household rubbish" shall mean the waste material and trash, including garden trash and prunings, normally accumulated by a family in its residence in the course of ordinary day-to-day living.

(d) "Incineration" shall mean any source operation in which combustion is carried on for the principal purpose or with the principal result of oxidizing a waste material to reduce its bulk or facilitate disposal or both.

(e) "Burning" shall mean the rapid exothermic reaction of any material with oxygen.

(f) "Emission" shall mean visible emissions.

SECTION 4. EXCEPTIONS: The following operations are excepted from the provisions of this ordinance:

(a) Fires used only for cooking of food for human consumption, fires used for recreational purposes, recreational heating, or occasional cooking of food for human beings where such use is accomplished in a fire place or barbecue pit.

(b) Fires for disposal of household rubbish, originating at one or two family dwellings, which fires are maintained by the occupant of the dwelling, at the dwelling, at such time or times as may be determined by the public officer having fire control jurisdiction.

(c) Incinerators used for disposal of pathological or contaminated material from hospital and veterinary clinics.

(d) Incinerators used as crematoriums at licensed funeral homes.

(e) Incinerators used for disposal of animals from Animal Shelter.

(f) Incinerators required in commercial or manufacturing processes where no practical alternative methods of disposal exist, as determined by the County Department of Public Health.

(g) Any fire set or permitted by a public fire official in the performance of his official duty; (1) for the purposes of weed abatement, (2) to control the growth of vegetation in irrigation ditches, flood control channels and canals, (3) for the improvement of range and pasture as a grazing area, (4) for the purpose of disease and pest prevention in connection with agricultural activities, (5) to facilitate the growing of crops or fruits and the disposal of any prunings thereof, (6) elimination of a fire hazard and the keeping of fire department personnel, (7) stubble burning, and (8) Improvement of wild life habitat.

(h) Orchard-hesters for agricultural products such as orchards and vineyards, which are operated or regulated so that they will not discharge unburned solid carbonaceous matter at a rate in excess of one (1) gram per minute.

SECTION 5. OTHER STATUTES AND ORDINANCES:

(a) Nothing in this ordinance is intended to repeal or to permit any practice which is in violation of any statute or ordinance presently in force and in effect including compliance with the provisions of Chapter 12 of the Code of Solano County. The provisions of any ordinance in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance are hereby repealed.

SECTION 6. NUISANCE:

(a) Every violation of Section 2 of this ordinance is hereby declared to be a public nuisance and the District Attorney of Solano County may take such action as he shall deem necessary to abate such nuisance.

SECTION 7. PENALTIES: Any person, whether principal, agent, employee or otherwise who violates any of the provisions of Section 2 of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment in the county jail of the County of Solano for a term not exceeding six months or by both such fine and imprisonment. Such person shall be deemed to be guilty of a separate offense for each and every day during any portion of which any violation of Section 2 of this ordinance is committed, continued, or permitted by such person, and shall be punishable as herein provided.

SECTION 8. SEVERABILITY:

(a) It is intended that if any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held to be unconstitutional or invalid, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance.

SECTION 9. EFFECTIVE DATE:

THIS ORDINANCE shall be published once before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage in the TIMES HERALD, a newspaper of general circulation printed and

and published in Solano County, and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its passage.

ORDINANCE NO. 737

ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 20, ARTICLE II, DIVISION 2, SECTION 20-16(a) OF THE SOLANO COUNTY CODE CONCERNING PROBATIONARY PERIOD
FOR DEPUTY SHERIFF

The Board of Supervisors of Solano County, State of California, do ordain as follows:

SECTION I:

Effective July 1, 1970, Chapter 20, Article II, Division 2, Section 20-16(a)
of the Solano County Code is amended to read as follows:

"Section 20-16 Probation period
(a) All new or re-employed employees in full-time regular positions, except employees in the Deputy Sheriff series, shall serve a probationary period of 6 months from date of appointment. Employees entering classes in the Deputy Sheriff series shall serve 12 month probationary period. All full-time employees who transfer from one department to another shall serve a probationary period of 6 months from the date of transfer except if transferred to a position in the Deputy Sheriff series in which case the employee shall serve a 12 month probationary period. In addition, all full-time employees who are promoted shall serve a probationary period of 6 months from the date of promotion. Regular part-time employees shall serve an extended probation period beyond 6 months in proportion to the relationship his basic work week bears to 40 hours. Any leave of absence without pay, exceeding 15 calendar days shall cause the employee's probation period to be extended to the first of the month following completion of the leave-of-absence without pay."

SECTION II:

This ordinance shall be published once before the expiration of fifteen (15) days after its passage in the DAILY REPUBLIC, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the County of Solano, and shall be in full force and effect thirty (30) days after its passage.
