are sold; provided, said produce stands are located on the parcels where the produce is grown.
Said permits shall be obtained prior to opening for business and issuance of the business and issuance of the business license.

4. Fire
   (aa) Compliance with applicable and uniform fire codes. License shall not be issued until all conditions and requirements as may be imposed have been completed and certified by the appropriate fire protection district or authority. In the event the proposed location is not within a fire protection district, the proper authority is such case is the Solano County Fire Warden.

   C. Upon approval of the Board of Supervisors, a license will be issued by the tax collector.

   D. The license issued shall be renewed annually, without any new application so long as the holder shall remain in business at the location covered by the original permit, and so long as such holder shall semiannually pay in full the license fee provided in Section 14-4, unless such license is revoked, as provided in Section 14-6.

SECTION II.
Section 14-4, Chapter 14, Fees, Solano County Code, is amended to read as follows:
Section 14-4. Fees.
The license fees required as a regulatory fee, shall be as follows:
Twenty Dollars ($20.00) semiannually for any store, stand, service station, bar or other stationary and permanent business.
Thirty Dollars ($30.00) semiannually for hawkers, peddlers; book agents, traveling photographers or other mobile and transient business not engaged in interstate commerce.
Failure to renew license within thirty (30) days after expiration thereof, will result in a penalty of late renewal of fifty percent (50%) of the license fee.

SECTION III.
Section 14-5, Chapter 14, Licenses, Solano County Code, is amended to read as follow section 14-5. Separate License Required—Transient Identification.
A. An individual license shall be issued for each individual place of business, and any person having more than one place of business. License shall not be transferable nor assignable.

B. Transient licensee shall, prior to commencement of any transient business and not less than twenty-four (24) hours preceding such transient business, file with the Sheriffs Department a description and license number of all vehicles to be used, as well as name, physical description, address, and adequate indicia of identification of all persons acting as agents for such transient licensee.

SECTION IV.
Section 14-6, Chapter 14, Licenses, Solano County Code, is amended to read as follows:
Section 14-6. Revocation.
A license issued in accordance with the provisions of this chapter shall be revoca­ able at any time by the Board of Supervisors of the County upon proof to the satisfaction of the Board that such business is not being conducted in accordance with the health, building, zoning and fire regulations, in a quiet, orderly manner, or that the nature of the business being conducted is not substantially as was represented in the application; provided, that no license shall be revoked except upon notice to the holder thereof that such holder is violating the provisions of this chapter, and that the board will hold a hearing upon the complaint. The notice shall be in writing and served either personally or mailed, through the United States post office facilities, to the business or home address of the applicant or applicants as revealed in the application. The notice shall indicate the nature of the complaint, the date, time and place of hearing, and the fact that at such time of hearing the holder of the license may offer evidence in his behalf. The date of hearing shall be held within a reasonable time, usually not less than TEN (10) DAYS after personal service or mailing such notice to the applicant or applicants, through the United States post office facilities.

SECTION V.

This Ordinance shall be published once before the expiration of FIFTEEN (15) DAYS after its passage in the River News Herald, a newspaper of general circulation, printed and published in the County of Solano, and shall be in full force and effect THIRTY (30) DAYS after its passage.
