An Ordinance Making it a misdemeanor to interfere with or to resist the Pound Master, in the discharge of his duty, or to attempt to rescue Domestic animals by said officer impounded by any means whatsoever, or to aid or abet any person or persons any person in resisting the Pound Master, or in rescuing stock impounded by the pound Master, and providing the punishment thereof.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KENT DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

SECTION ONE.

That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to resist the Pound Master of the City of Kent, Washington, in the discharge of his duty, or to attempt to resist him; or to aid or abet any person or persons to resist or attempt to resist him; or to rescue or attempt to rescue, or to aid or abet in any rescue or attempted rescue of any animal impounded by any means whatsoever.

SECTION TWO.

That any person or persons shall violate any of the provisions of section one hereof either as principal or as aider or abettor shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined in any sum not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars, or imprisoned in the city or county jail for any period not exceeding thirty days, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and if the fine be not paid he may be committed until such fine be paid.

SECTION THREE.

This ordinance from and after five days after its publication as provided by law.

Passed by City Council July 19, 1915.
Approved by the Mayor July 20, 1915.

[Signature]

CITY CLERK

Approved as to form

City Attorney.
Enforcing

Masters

Jurisdiction