AN ORDINANCE Numbered Three Hundred and Sixty Two (362) providing for taxing and licensing certain vocations, and providing a penalty for the violation of the same, which ordinance was passed and approved by the City Council of the City of Kent, Washington October 5th, 1914 and published October 10th, 1914.

SECTION ONE.

That section three of ordinance No three hundred and sixty two (362) relating to the taxing and licensing of certain vocations within the City of Kent, Washington passed and approved by the City Council and Mayor October 5th, 1914, be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

SECTION THREE.

Such license shall be for the period of one day only, unless otherwise specified, and the amount of the license tax shall be as follows:

For each circus, menagerie or other like show, exclusive of side show, twenty five dollars per day;

For each side show connected with such circus or menagerie and charging an admission the sum of five dollars per day;

For each theatre, concert, show, or exhibition or other public amusement, except as hereinafter provided, fifteen dollars per day, fifteen dollars per month or twenty five dollars per quarter;

For each hawker, pedler, book agent, selling and delivering his wares, five dollars per day;

For such exhibitions known as street fairs, or any public exhibition given on the streets or thorough-fares, and not otherwise included in this ordinance ten dollars (10) per day;

For each firm or corporation peddling or soliciting from house to house the following named products to wit: fish, meats, vegetables, fruits, butter and eggs three dollars per day or twenty five dollars per month;
Provided, that no charge shall be made for the sale or vending of farm or dairy products by the producer thereof; and Provided further that any merchant having an established business and place of business in the City of Kent, shall not be required to pay license fee for soliciting or canvassing for business from residents of the City of Kent:

Each astrologer, seer, palmist, fortune teller, and any other person or persons of like occupation the sum of five dollars per day;

Each so called hypnotist or mesmerist, ten dollars per day;

Shooting galleries ten dollars per day;

Each merry-go-round, riding gallery and other similar amusement not otherwise provided for in this ordinance five dollars per day or twenty five dollars per month;

All other games, shows, (Except church and school entertainments whether for profit or not) exhibitions, amusements and entertainments from which profit is derived or is intended, not herein before mentioned or enumerated five dollars per day;

Provided that it shall be unlawful for any traveling doctor or patent medicine vendor, sell or offer for sale any medicines or to give away the same in connection with any show or exhibition whether a charge is made for admission or not.

Section four.

That section three of Ordinance No. 362 as originally passed is hereby repealed.

SECTION FIVE.

This ordinance shall be in force and effect form and after its passage and publication as provided by law.

Passed by Council Dec. 6th, 1915

Approved by the Mayor Dec. 6th, 1915

Approved as to form

Lot Davis,
City Attorney
Amending Ord. 362, Sec 3, An Ordinance Licensing
Certain Vocations

ORDINANCE
No. 376

REPEALED
BY ORD. 686