ORDINANCE NO. 378

AN ORDINANCE DEFINING CERTAIN MISDEMEANORS AND PROVIDING A PENALTY THEREFOR.

Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Kent, Washington, as follows:

Section One.

The phrase, "Intoxicating liquor" wherever used in this ordinance shall be held and construed to mean and include, whiskey, brandy, applejack, gin, rum, wine, ale, beer, porter, hard-cider, and any spirituous, vinous, fermented or malt liquor, and any other liquor or liquid whether contained in the above list or not containing any intoxicating properties which is capable of being used as a beverage whether medicated or not and all liquids whether proprietary or patented or not, which contain alcohol which are capable of being used as a beverage.

Section Two.

The word "Person" wherever used in this ordinance, shall be held and construed to mean and include, natural persons, firms, copartnerships, corporations, and all associations of natural persons whether acting by themselves, or by a servant, agent, employee or by any person acting gratuitously.

Section Three.

The phrase "Blind Pig", wherever used in this ordinance, shall be construed and held to mean and include all places, houses, buildings, premises or inclosure where any unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor is made or bartering, furnishing, giving away, or delivering the same contrary to this ordinance.

Section Four.

The term, "Boot Legging", wherever used in this ordinance, shall be construed and held to mean and include the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor within the city of Kent, Washington, except from a drug store, blind pig, or club of any sort or kind whatever,
Section Five.

It shall be unlawful within the City of Kent, Washington, for any person to manufacture or by any means produce any intoxicating liquor whatever, or to sell, barter, exchange, give away, furnish or otherwise dispose of any intoxicating liquor contrary to this ordinance, or to keep therein any intoxicating liquor for the purpose of and with the intent to sell, barter, exchange give away, furnish, deliver to any person, or otherwise dispose of the same except as in this ordinance provided, Provided, That this ordinance shall not apply to any legal sales made by any druggist operating a store within the City of Kent, Washington; Provided further, That it shall not be unlawful for any person to give away any intoxicating liquor, by him obtained in accordance with the laws of the state of Washington, for his own use, to a guest and to be drank in his private residence or apartment which is not a place of public resort.

Section Six.

It shall be unlawful for any person, the owner of any real estate within the City of Kent to permit the use of the same for the unlawful sale of intoxicating liquor or for any person having possession thereof no matter by what kind of an agreement he holds the same.

Section Seven.

It shall be unlawful within the corporate limits of the City of Kent, Washington for any person to own or to operate any Blind pig, or to engage in bootlegging within the City of Kent, Washington.

Section Eight.

It shall be unlawful for any person to directly or indirectly to keep or maintain by himself or by associating with others, or to in any manner aid, abet or assist in the keeping or maintaining of any club house or other place in which intoxicating liquors are received or kept for the purpose of use, gift, barter, sale, or for the purpose of distribution or division among the members thereof.

Section Ten.
Section Ten.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance, shall upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than twenty five nor over two hundred and fifty dollars, or be sentenced to the city or county jail for not less than ten nor over two hundred and fifty days or by both such fine and imprisonment.

This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and legal publication as provided by law.

Passed January 4, 1916.

City Clerk

Approved January 5, 1916.

Mayor

Approved as to form

Lot Davis

City Attorney.
ORDINANCE
NO. 878
REPEALED
BY ORD. 683

Defining Certain
Misdemeanors