AN ORDINANCE of the City of Kent making it unlawful for any person to receive, transport, or have in his possession, intoxicating liquor other than alcohol, and fixing a penalty.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KENT DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person other than a regularly ordained clergyman, priest or rabbi, within the corporate limits of the City of Kent, to receive from any common carrier or person engaged in transporting goods, wares and merchandise, or to transport, any intoxicating liquor other than alcohol; and it shall be unlawful for any person other than such clergyman, priest or rabbi, to have in his possession any intoxicating liquor other than alcohol within the corporate limits of the City of Kent.

Section 2. The provisions of section 1 of this ordinance shall not apply to any physician, druggist, or other person, having any such liquor in his possession for medical or mechanical purposes only.

Section 3. Any person convicted of a violation of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine in any amount not exceeding $300.00, or by imprisonment in the City of County jail for a period not exceeding 90 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 4. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force five days after its passage and publication as provided by law.
