An ordinance of the City of Kent regulating the speed of Railroad trains therein, and prohibiting the obstruction of street crossings by cars or engines, and repealing Ordinance No. 193.

The City Council of the City of Kent does ordain as follows:

Section 1: It shall be unlawful for any engineer, conductor, motorman or other person having charge of the operation of railroad trains, electric or traction trains or engines, to run, or cause the same to be run within the limits of the City of Kent at a greater speed than Twenty-five (25) miles per hour.

Section 2: It shall be unlawful for any such person or persons as designated in section 1 of this ordinance, to cause or allow any train, cars or engine or other vehicle used in the operation of trains, to stand upon the crossing of said railway, and any street or alley in the said city, so as in any way to hinder or obstruct travel or traffic upon the said street or alley for a greater period than five (5) minutes at any one time.

Section 3: Any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this ordinance upon conviction thereof, shall be fined in any sum not exceeding Fifty Dollars, or imprisoned in the City Jail not exceeding ten (10) days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 4: Ordinance No. 193 passed March 1st, 1909, and any other ordinance in conflict with the provisions of this ordinance is hereby repealed.

Section 5: This ordinance shall take effect five days after its passage, approval and publication as provided by law.
