AN ORDINANCE to maintain the public peace and good will and promote the public welfare of the inhabitants of the City of Kent by making it unlawful for any person to walk back and forth, loiter or remain upon the streets or sidewalks in front of any business house for the purpose of persuading or intimidating any person from entering said place of business, excepting employees of such business from the provisions of the ordinance, providing a penalty for the violation thereof and declaring an emergency.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF KENT DO ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person to walk back and forth, loiter or remain upon the streets or sidewalks in front of any business house of the City of Kent for the purpose of persuading or intimidating any person from entering said place of business for the purpose of transacting business therein; provided however, that this Ordinance shall not apply to employees of said business or to any person who has been an employee of said business within ninety (90) days of engaging in such prohibited acts.

Section 2. Any person violating any of the terms of this Ordinance shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not to exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars or imprisoned in the City Jail for a period of not to exceed thirty (30) days, or both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 3. This Ordinance is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and shall be in effect five (5) days after its passage and publication as provided by law.
