ORDINANCE NO.-------

An ordinance granting free water to the Washington Condensed Milk Company for one year.

Be it ordained by the council of the town of Kent:

Section 1. That there is hereby granted to the Washington Condensed Milk Company, a corporation, the right and privilege, for the period of one year from the 20th day of January, 1898, to use, free of charge, such amount of water, taken from the town mains, as may be necessary for the proper operation of its condensed milk factory, and for no other purpose; provided, that the amount so taken shall not interfere with the necessary supply for the Northern Pacific Railway Company's tank or any other consumer using water from the town system, or with the supply necessary to be used by said town for fire or other municipal uses. Connections to the town mains shall be made by the said Washington Condensed Milk Company at its own expense at the corner of Meeker Avenue and First Street, in a manner satisfactory to the Superintendent of Water and Light of the Town of Kent. Said grantee will also, at the time it makes said connection, put in a gate or cut off in its pipe at such point as said superintendent of Water and Light shall designate, said gate and to be furnished at the expense of said grantee.

Section 2. That if said Washington Condensed Milk Company shall at any time permit any water to run to waste in or about its factory or shall use or furnish any water from its pipes for any purposes other than the one mentioned in section 1 of this ordinance, or shall use such a quantity that the supply to other consumers, including said city, shall be interfered with, or shall fail to remove its factory now located at ________ to said town of Kent and have the same in operation to its full capacity within ninety days after the passage of this ordinance, then the rights and privileges granted in section 1 of this ordinance shall at once cease and be forfeited.

Section 3. This franchise and privilege is given and granted upon the further express condition that it shall at once cease and be forfeited in case said grantee shall at any time sell, assign or transfer the same to any other persons, person or corporations or corporation, or in case said franchise and privilege shall be sold under any execution of attachment or other writ issuing out of any court, or on foreclosure proceedings had in any court, or otherwise.
